Matters of Interest

By The Editor

FAITHFUL SERVICE.

On Saturday evening, a hundred or more friends of Miss Lucy Goodman, gathered at the Community Hall to pay tribute to one who had devoted twenty-one years of the best of her life in continuous service to the best interests of the community in which she lived. As the days came and went during those years of teaching our young, no doubt, little heed or thought was given by anyone in regard to the splendid work which Miss Goodman was doing; but now that we have an opportunity to look back and contemplate and consider her life of quiet, patient, faithful service in the light of the present, we are filled with a spirit of appreciation for the services which she has rendered, and a spirit of thankfulness because there has lived in this country, here and there and all about us, faithful intelligent, men and women who have been willing to take up their life's work in a spirit of seriousness and do their best at all times. These are the salt of the earth, and it is because of their lives that our nation has come to its great eminence and secured the place it has among the nations of the earth.

GIG HARBOR TEACHER HONORED

On Friday evening, Sept. 21, a large number of our people gathered at the Community Hall for an evening's enjoyment in honor of Miss Lucy Goodman, one of our local teachers who has a record of 21 years of continuous service in the schools of this place. Miss Goodman received her education at the state university and the Ellensburg normal and she holds a life diploma granted her by the latter school. In token of the friendship of her scholars and friends Miss Goodman was presented with a beautiful writing desk, Mrs. F. S. Drummond presenting the same with a few well chosen words. Other gifts were also received.

The hostesses of the evening were: Mrs. J. Verhardson, Mrs. Peter Alvestad and Mrs. Robert Alvestad.

Those present enjoyed cards and a general get-to-gather time. Refreshments were also served.

Following are the names of those who gave towards the writing desk, and most of whom with their families were present.
