“HARBOR HISTORY MUSEUM TO SCREEN JINI DELLACCIO DOCUMENTARY AT GALAXY THEATRE IN UPTOWN GIG HARBOR”

Her Aim is True to be shown on January 31, 2018

Gig Harbor, WA – On Wednesday, January 31, 2018 the Harbor History Museum, in partnership with Galaxy Theatres, will be screening the engaging and inspiring film, Her Aim is True. This documentary on rock and roll photographer Jini Dellaccio will be shown at the Galaxy Theatres in Uptown Gig Harbor, 4649 Point Fosdick Drive NW, Gig Harbor, WA 98335, at 6:30 p.m. on the 31st.

Tickets are $15 and include admission to the screening of Her Aim is True, admission to Harbor History Museum for a Curator Tour of “With a Loving Eye: The Photographs of Jini Dellaccio,” and entry into the evening’s raffle in which we will be giving away an autographed copy of Dellaccio’s Rock & Roll Photography book.

Her Aim Is True brings together musicians and rock photographers in an inspiring and unforgettable journey revealing unlikely rock 'n' roll photographer Jini Dellaccio, who visualized punk before it had a name and embodied indie before it was cool. In 1964, a middle-aged Dellaccio was hired to photograph raucous garage bands, shooting in natural settings around her Gig Harbor home to create innovative album covers. Soon she was capturing unprecedented portraits of Neil Young and early performances by The Who, Rolling Stones, Mitch Ryder and Mamas & Papas. An anthem for individual creativity, the film celebrates a legacy lost and found as it traces Dellaccio's ingenuity, spirit and style through participants in a gritty music subculture that like, Dellaccio, would set the bar for their descendants.

January 31st would have marked Jini Dellaccio's 101st birthday! What better way to celebrate than by screening Director Karen Whitehead's incredible documentary on Jini's life?

As mentioned, the screening of Her Aim is True will be held at Galaxy Theatre in Uptown Gig Harbor, 4649 Point Fosdick Drive NW, Gig Harbor, WA 98335. Admission is $15 and can be purchased online on the Museum's Buy Tickets page or by calling 253-858-6722; tickets may also be purchased at the Museum front desk.

About Harbor History Museum: Harbor History Museum creates opportunities to experience the heritage of the greater Gig Harbor communities by collecting, preserving, and sharing the rich history of the area. Our vision is to be the cornerstone that provides a gathering place and a sense of identity for our community. Founded in 1964, the Gig Harbor Peninsula Historical Society dba Harbor History Museum opened its new facility in 2010. The museum campus includes an 1893 fully restored one-room school house; a 65-foot fishing vessel currently under restoration; 7,000 square feet of exhibition space; and a 900-square foot library, research and meeting room. The Museum provides a variety of public education programs. Our core educational program is the Pioneer School Experience (PSE), which serves over 1,400 students every year. Led by a trained “School Marm,” the children experience a pioneer school classroom complete with lessons, recitations, music, recess, and lunch. Our permanent exhibit features professionally designed exhibitions, larger-than-life experiences, and opportunities for hands-on exploration of our region’s rich history and unique heritage. Artifacts, video kiosks, hands-on exhibits, computer interactives, and a small theater bring Peninsula history to life in our permanent galleries. In addition, the Museum provides 3-5 special exhibits throughout the year so there is always something new to see and experience for our members and visitors.
